

Farm fire preparedness webinar

Are you a new property owner, manage livestock, or want to improve your farm fire preparation? Preparing for bushfire season is essential for all farmers and landholders. Join Agriculture Victoria's farm fire preparedness webinar, where Kylie Macreadie will share practical steps, tools, and templates to help you identify risks and develop a farm fire plan.

You'll hear firsthand from a landholder about their experience of fire events, including preparedness, putting plans into action, and recovery afterwards. Gain valuable insights to help prepare your people, property and livestock.
